Description

Positioned within a well established residential street close to the heart of Norton, this charming and deceptively spacious terraced home offers character, generous proportions. Making it an appealing prospect for first-time buyers, young families or investors alike.

Behind the traditional forecourt frontage, a welcoming vestibule opens into a bright entrance hallway where the home's high ceilings and sense of space become immediately apparent. The bay-fronted lounge is a particularly inviting reception room, centred around an attractive feature fireplace and filled with natural light. This space flows effortlessly through to the dining room, creating an open yet defined layout ideal for both everyday living and entertaining.

The kitchen is fitted with a smart range units, integrated oven and hob, and ample worktop space, offering a practical and stylish setting for cooking.

To the first floor, the sense of space continues. The principal bedroom is notably generous in size, while the second bedroom comfortably accommodates a double bed. A modern family bathroom is fitted with a sleek three-piece suite and includes useful built-in storage.

Externally, the enclosed rear yard provides a private outdoor area.

The property enjoys a highly convenient location within easy reach of the cafés, bars and independent shops of Norton High Street, while larger retail and leisure facilities are available nearby in Stockton-on-Tees. Well regarded local schools, parks and transport links are also close at hand, making this a practical and desirable place to call home.

A property offering space, character and potential in a sought-after area, early viewing is strongly recommended.
