Description

RARE TO MARKET - 4 BED - DETACHED - GARDENS - OFF ROAD PARKING

Rare to the market this fabulous unique four bedroom detached stone built bungalow located on the outskirts of Tow Law, Bishop Auckland. This former Railway Cottage has fabulous potential with its spacious reception rooms, many original features such as inglenook fire with its multi fuel stove, beams to the ceilings, quirky stairs into the kitchen, amazing gardens surrounding the property and open aspect countryside views with ample off road parking for a number of cars. This property also offers a spacious loft room which subject to planning could be converted to make an even bigger property. The property has no onward chain.

Located close to local amenities, shops, schools and excellent bus and road links into Durham and Bishop Auckland.

The floorplan comprises Kitchen/diner, sitting room, lounge, inner hallway, four bedrooms and bathroom. Further benefits include gas central heating, double glazing and loft room.

We highly recommend viewing to fully appreciate the potential this truly fabulous property has to offer.
